

Want to submit a guest post to the ComPARE study blog? Connect with the ComPARE study team (thecomparestudy@gmail.com) to discuss your topic or see blog submission guidelines below.

Contact information

Name
Organization
Role
Email
Short bio of the writer (1 or 2 sentences)
Photo of writer (optional)	Please attach your headshot via email.

Examples of topics

- Discussion of results (summary, risk factor, cancer type)
- Share how you use the ComPARE study results in your work. Examples of areas include:
 - research
 - advocacy
 - programs
 - information
 - policy
 - patient education

Checklist for submission

- Target audience includes healthcare and public health professionals, researchers, and individuals with an interest in the ComPARE study results and cancer prevention
- 300 to 500 words
- Writing follows the principles of plain language
- Write directly to the reader

Please use the Canadian Cancer Society Writing Manual as a reference document. This writing manual is used to promote clear and consistent communication and is a helpful guide on style, plain language and more.

How to submit your post

Email your completed blog post as a word document, along with this form to thecomparestudy@gmail.com.

All submissions will be reviewed by the ComPARE study team and editors from the Canadian Cancer Society. Thank you for your interest in writing a blog post!